

RECYCLE UTAH COMMUNICATIONS & ADVOCACY INTERNSHIP

Recycle Utah, located in the heart of Park City, offers internships throughout the year in the spring (January – May), summer (June – August), and fall (September – December). If you are interested in gaining practical experience in nonprofit communications and advocacy, this may be an ideal position for you. Additional responsibilities include social and print media outreach, volunteer recruitment, environmental advocacy, fundraising assistance, and working with customers at our drop-off center. There couldn't be a better way to learn about the recycling industry!

Recycle Utah is seeking an intern to assist our staff with the following in 2017:

1. Assist as we visit schools to educate children on climate change, sustainable resource management, and water conservation.
2. Market Recycle Utah through social media networks, radio, television, and print media. Represent Recycle Utah at outreach events across Summit County and all of Utah, while working to grow our support base.
3. Assist with grant research, grant writing, and other development efforts.
4. Research to support advocacy issues, including a plastic bag initiative, a statewide bottle bill, an EPS white packing foam ban, and an electronic-waste landfill ban.
5. Help us operate Recycle Utah's bustling 5,000 square-foot recycling center.

Requirements:

1. Passion for, and knowledge of Recycle Utah's work.
2. Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
3. Friendly and outgoing demeanor.
4. Ability to commit 9-12 hours per week, with some evenings/weekends.

How to Apply:

1. Submit a one-page cover letter, detailing your interest in the internship, and your relevant experience.
2. Submit your resume, which should include relevant work and academic experience.
3. Submit two professional, or academic references.

Please send application documents to Molly Brooks at outreach@recycleutah.org
